Spare parts to Govt. Lorry No.5036.

I have the honour to state it is reported by the Deputy Commissioner, Shimoga, that the lorry was very badly in need of certain repairs and could not be put on the road. The Inspector of Motor Vehicles in charge of Govt. lorries, Shimoga, was deputed by the Deputy Commissioner, Shimoga District, to go to Bangalore to fetch spare parts necessary to repair the lorry. He also addressed the Chief Rationing Authority in Mysore and the Secretary, Stores Purchase Committee, Bangalore, to issue necessary permits for the spare parts etc. Most of the spare parts were purchased by the Inspector in Bangalore with the assistance of the foreman, attached to the Office of the Transport Officer, Bangalore, the total cost of which amounts to Rs.259/4. An expenditure of Rs.73/- is involved as labour charges in repairing the lorry. A sum of Rs.12-15-0 has also been included in the estimate towards unforeseen expenses at 5% of the estimate. It is seen from the above that the total estimate amount to Rs.344-15-0 The labour charges claimed in the estimate are stated to be reasonable.

2. I enclose herewith a copy of the estimate in this behalf and request sanction of Government for the repairs to the lorry.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

for DIRECTOR OF FOOD SUPPLIES.
